“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. Words are not adequate to describe how very much Judy meant to us and everyone who knew her. God decided that her suffering should end and called her home to be with his other angels. Find comfort and peace in knowing that "God has got this." Love, Owen and Bobbie “ Ms. Judy, as I try to find the words to put here... I'm finding my emotions are all over the place. I've never met anyone that had a permanent smile or a kind word regardless of the situation or individual. You never spoke ill of anyone or anything. Your faith in our Father seemed unwavering. You saw the good in every one... Even me!! You will be missed by many and memories of you will be cherished. Ernie, Trey, Phillip, and Becca my deepest condolences and prayers are with y'all through this and beyond.

“ Ms Judy was more than just my Sunday school teacher, home school teacher, and Girl Scout leader. She was one of the sweetest and honest people I'd ever met. She taught me how to be the best version of myself and helped mold me into the person I am today. I may have taken a detour off the path once or twice but her kind words and forgiving heart always guided me back. Ms Judy was and remains to be an inspiration to us all. Prayers for the family and all the lives Judy touched!

“ That God should send me such a girlfriend! And one, as I told her, who reminded me so much of my sweet mother! Judy was turned toward God's streams of blessings with a heart stirred to come alive to all the invitations that quietly surrounded her. She lived in the open-mindedness of never knowing enough about what is beautiful! An image of open arms, she was what love is and what beauty can be and what kindness and goodness should always be like.

“ I'll always remember Judy as a person of compassion. She worked tirelessly in her community with sports, the library, her crafts and helping feed the ones in need. Christmas was also special with getting others to help Santa for children in need.

Judy was doing what God wanted her to do, even with her health issues.

What an Angel, thank you Lord.

Our world needs more people like Judy to make it a better place. ❤️

“ Becca, Ashley and Austin .. So sorry to hear about Mamo. I have always admired Miss Judy's strength, caring abilities and selfless nature. She was a true friend to many, an inspiration to her community, creative, giving and someone who was always a pleasure to be around. She was always so positive, even in difficult and challenging situations. Bless her heart, she is free of pain and cancer. So glad that y'all were able to enjoy Sundays parade of Love and so many other precious and tender moments. Our thoughts, love and prayers are with you all. 💕💕 Melody, Ryan and Kenny.

“ I was looking through my photos to find a few to post to Judy Henderson's memorial and found this one of her at the 2010 Providence Baptist Church Vacation Bible School.

Judy was a member of the church across the road -- Rico United Methodist Church --but the two churches often shared services because they were a part of the larger community.

Each adult leader in the VBS had a few assistants to help with their assigned group of kids. I was in Judy's group, but truth be told, this was my first VBS ever, so I was really more student than teacher.

It was a lovely experience to be taught Bible lessons by Judy. She had such a way of making lessons fun and personal to each person. I can only imagine how much fun it must have been to be one of her full-time students, or better yet, one of her kids.

Looking through the photos, I saw so many dear ones who have long since passed. For just a moment, I was a little sad. But then I thought, how lucky they all are now that Judy Henderson has joined them. I hope I'm that lucky one day:-)

“ Words are so inadequate to describe a light such as Judy. She manifested love, from a smile that lit up rooms and lives to the feet that served so many in her family and the entire community (and beyond). Judy’s legacy lives on in so many ways. What a loving and supportive family...Barry and I are praying for all of you at a time of sadness in so many ways, yet also a sweet celebration of a whole new life! God bless you.

“ Judy oh Judy how you will be missed. The lives you have touched, the smiles you have shared too many to count. I guess no one single person I have ever encountered has impacted me quite like you. Your spirit and energy at your weakest point were still stronger than most at their best. I cannot put into words what you meant to me as we shared so many of the same interest and passions. Our sincere understanding of each others demon that was trying to take us down. Trust me when I say CANCER DID NOT WIN over you. You showed it who was boss over and over. GOD JUST NEEDED HIS ANGEL and you accepted his invitation to serve from his heavens as your job here on earth was complete. We will all miss you and every single thing you ever shared with us shall be stored as golden precious treasures in our hearts. RIP precious angel. You sure earned your wings!
