

Julius Herron

November 17, 1955 - March 15, 2020

Reverend Julius C. Herron, Jr. of Newnan, GA passed away on March 15, 2020. Julius was the son of the late Julius C. Herron, Sr. and the late Ada Cox Herron. He was preceded in death by his brother, Mark Anthony Herron. He is survived by his wife, Kim Carter Herron; children, Austin North of Miami, FL, Hayden North of Brooks, GA, Emily North of Sioux Falls, SD, Demetrius Whitfield of LaGrange, GA, and Ansley Lathem of Grantville, GA; sister, Carolynn Herron of Las Vegas, NV; brother, Larry Jackson (Susan) of Newnan, GA; grandson, Demetrius Cashton Whitfield; and nieces Ashley Tucker (Huntsville, AL) and Savasia Bethel (Las Vegas, NV).

After graduating from Baker High School in Columbus, GA in 1973, Julius immediately carried on his family legacy by joining the United States Marine Corps, serving in Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, Paris Island, South Carolina, Yuma, AZ, and Okinawa, Japan. Julius worked for Newnan Utilities for 23 years, retiring in April 2015 after having made friends with everyone in Newnan. Never one to stay put, Julius started J&L Back-Flow with his best friend and brother, Larry Jackson.

Reverend Herron was Ordained on January 19, 1997, and has preached at churches throughout Newnan and the surrounding areas. He was most honored to have served as an Associate Minister under Pastor J.T. Coleman at Summerhill Baptist Church before becoming a pastor himself at Central Baptist Church in LaGrange. From there, God guided his ministry to his most recent service location - New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Newnan where he assisted the newly installed pastor, Ashley Stewartson. He was involved in Sunday School, Bible Study and various Pulpit Ministries. One of the proudest moments in his ministry was the recent baptism of his son, Austin North, and dear friend, Kelly Keylon, into the fold as believers in Jesus Christ.

Those wishing to do so may sign the online guest registry at www.parrottfuneralthome.com. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to New Hope Missionary Baptist Church (4036 Corinth Road, Newnan, GA 30263).

 Due to health concerns and current CDC recommendations, a Celebration of Life service will be held at a later date. Details will be provided as more information becomes available. **

“ Prayers for the family.
We've, the Perkins and Banks families have know Rev. Julius Herron for years as he and my father grew up in Columbus, GA together.
Words aren't enough at this time, but just be encouraged and know that God is more than enough. Look to Him for comfort and peace.

“ Kim, our heartfelt prayers and condolences to you and your entire family. Although I only met Julius once I knew the love you had for him and vice versa, it was felt through the words, the pages of life, just through your posts and the smiles you two shared! We go way back to Duncan Park when our kids were inseparable, now all grown up, we send our prayers although we are miles apart. Reading the obituary and all his accomplishments, the Baptism of Austin tops the list! Know that you two will see each other again as weeping may endure for a night, let the memories bring joy, for you are so deserving and in time, the hole in your hearts will heal. Hold onto God’s unchanging hands for your comfort.

“ I had the honor of working alongside Julius for a number of summers. By the end of my first week with him, I realized what sort of friend and mentor he would be -- and he quickly became both to me. A handshake and a hug from him always felt sincere and made you realize there was now someone else out there sending up regular prayers for you. "Truly Blessed" used to be his front license plate and that's exactly what everyone who came in contact him was.

For whatever reason, I was proud to call him a day or so after our first son was born and leave him a message about it. I will never forget the message I got back from him: Tell your wife and your son that he's got a black uncle!

Rest easy Julius, you will be missed by all my man.

“ *It is said, We can not choose our family. Whether, we are blood or non- blood. We are tied to our deceased Brother, father and husband "Rev. Julius Herron" . Tho sometimes family may not always agree or see eye to eye. We are still family and bound through love for our love one. In time like this, we must put aside our differences . To mourn and say our goodbyes, this is not the time to be spiteful,or selfish. This is a time for reflection and celebration for one dear too so many.
May God bless and bring comfort the heart of the family.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Herron Family. This heartbreaking news was too much to bear.

Julius; affectionately known as J-Boy; was like a brother to us. We basically grew up together. He always had a smile on his face and joy in his heart. But nothing exuded the joy he had when his daughter, Sade, was born. Oh how proud. She became our God-daughter whom we love so much. Now the legacy continues with her boys. Just ask for God's strength and keep your trust in Him.

*Know that God is your Comforter and He will not leave you comfortless. May God's grace, love and mercy follow your every footstep. And may J-Boy rest safely and at peace in the Lord's arms
Your friends and family in Columbus.
Much love!!!*

“ Kim and family I am so sorry for your loss. I know Julius loved you deeply. I have struggled for the last day for what to say. I have known Julius for over 26 years and he deserves for me to say something meaningful that proves that I was a witness to the life of a genuinely good man. For the first 23 of the years I knew Julius we were coworkers. There were not many days that he didn't greet me with a smile showing all those teeth and a hand shake or a hug calling me brother. He brought light into every space.

When I read the obituary and saw that he was survived by his brother Larry. I got it. I've been pondering that all day and woke up at 4:00 am and that's what I first thought of. I can see Julius introducing Larry to a stranger as his brother. I can see the sideways look on their face like a German Shepard pup ears standing up and turned in slightly and even a little cross eyed. Brothers indeed. Different mothers but closer than brothers. How lucky a boy is to be born with a brother to grow up with. They play, they fight, that have each others backs and the bond grows stronger when love and respect are forged by wisdom and life's trials. But what a blessing it truly is to find a best friend in life and love him like a brother. For this Larry I am saddened by your loss too. I feel it deeply. I have a brother like that and I can't bear to think of when he is gone.

Praise God our father that because of the work he did on the cross that we know we will see Julius again very soon. We will miss you brother. Because of Christ we all share the same DNA.

“ The profound loss of this great man will be felt by so many who loved him. He was a wonderful friend to me and many others. Hey called me his Sista and oh how he and I shared some deep heart-felt belly laughs! And if I ever needed prayers, I asked Julius because I knew he had a direct line to the big man. He was such a kind and patient husband to you, Kim and he sure did have your back ALWAYS! Such a wonderful father. He touched so many lives with his kind words and deeds. We will all miss him so much here, but how happy I am to know where he is now and feeling no pain. The peace he had in his heart, as he left here, with no doubt or fear about where he was headed is such a blessing. He was a faithful servant with an ever present smile on his face, no matter his own challenges. I can hear his voice in my head and imagine him saying, "Hey there, LORD JESUS", as he entered the kingdom.
