“ I met Ty in 2015 when he moved to Virginia and attended my school, Brentsville Highschool. We instantly became close and always hung out in school and would occasionally outside of school. He was such a bright person and a great friend to be around. He always had my back when i was feelings low and would find ways to cheer me up. I knew he was someone i could trust and when i heard about this it hurt. How could anyone take such a great person away. We didn't know each other long but it felt as if i knew him since the sandbox. He was like my big brother. My condolences to all his loved ones and anyone close to him. This is a loss that will never be forgotten. Rest easy bro, and i love you. I will never forget you and know that you are watching over us all. I keep my head held high for you because i know you wouldn't want me down. Our memories are ever lasting and i appreciate the lessons you gave me. Red candle because even though we aren't blood related, we treated each other like we were. Fly high angel 🙏

“ My name is Keithsha Armstrong ty ex girlfriend and I want to give my condolences to his family. I'm sorry that this had happened to you all. My prayers go out to each and everyone of yall. Not only was he my boyfriend but he became my bestfriend. We shared a lot of memories together that won't be forgotten. He's such an great person and watching him become a man was everything I wanted to see. I helped him get better when times was rough for him. He opened up for me expressing all his emotions. I remember him going out and I called to check up on him to see where he was at and he told me he's on his way home from the studio. I remember him playing one song for me on my birthday. He has such an great soul and very wise. Even though we broke up there wasn't a time I didn't think about you. I will always love you and I know you loved me. I will never forget you baby boy. May you rest in peace my love.

I choose a green candle because that's the color you told me was your favorite.
