What a fabulous tribute of a life lived large !!! Such a beautiful wife, mother, sister, daughter, aunt, nurse and friend. I was especially touched by the picture in front of the iconic round house on st. Simons when your mom and I were roomies together that thanksgiving ... boy could we saw the logs in perfect harmony !!! We shared some really good times together... trips to the Caribbean and so many special family gatherings ... we could cook up some trouble ... often the last to go to sleep... sharing whatever space we could find ... usually an oversized couch !!! Our grown kids the same age, we learned together how to navigate being single moms with grown kids ... I will miss my friend, my confidant and my partner in crime ... now I will count on her angel wings to keep me on track without her brave backing nudging me forward !!!

“ This is really a great picture of Kathy, one that shows that little bit of a crooked smile that I always associate with her. To the kids, Edna, and Kelly, I want to say that you all are in our thoughts and prayers during an unbelievable time.

“ How do you have just one memory when you have shared 58 years of memories? You were one of a kind dear sister! You will be missed and we will watch over your children for you and Greg. You went to sleep on Tuesday morning and you woke up in Heaven. Rest well Kathy until we are reunited and give Greg and Dad a hug for me! Love you!

“ I will miss you my sweet friend. Today's times you are in a much better place and you are with Greg. There is a empty space in my heart right now. I will think about the good times we had and cherish it forever. We will be here for your kids as they are like our own. I will see you on the other side. Grant and Genevieve we will always be here for y'all. I pray God will wrap his arms around y'all and hug yall tight for comfort. Its not going to be easy but y'all have a lot of people that love yall. Above all y'all have God love y'all.

“ We have many great memories of Kathy and her laughter. One precious one is when she was visiting us and they were cattle in field behind our house. She went under the fence and went flying closer to them. We were afraid a bull would attack her but she was really enjoying it.
