

Katherine Manautou

February 3, 1955 - December 2, 2016

Kathy Price McQuinty Manautou passed away on Friday, December 2, 2016 around 6:00pm at Harbor View Nursing Home and Hospice in Thomaston, Georgia. She was preceded in death by her Husband of 18 years, Juan E. Manautou; parents, Rev. Bingham David and Katherine Emert Price; brother, David Charles Price; sister Sharon Sue Price. She is survived by her sister, Rebecca Holder of Newnan; daughter, Zorena and Peter Nolasco of Lovejoy; son, John and Beth Manautou of Jackson; sisters, Jeannie Broadway of Jonesboro, Reba and Jim Binion of Newnan; cousins, Linda and Earl Whitehead of Maryville, TN, Bud and Jo Jackson of Maryville, TN; nephew, David Alan Price of Woodville, TX; grandchildren, Lydia and Jaings Romero, Blanca and Juan Olvera, Zelena Limon, Andrew Manautou, Trenton Manautou and Layla Nolasco.

Kathy graduated from North Clayton High School in 1973. She graduated from Cosmetology School in Forest Park, Georgia. She worked in various salons and managed an Edie Adams salon in Jonesboro early in her career. She sang in several gospel groups and at McIntosh Amphitheater in Peachtree City with the South River Band.

She and Juan moved to Jenkinsburg, GA, shortly after their marriage.

Thursday, December 8, beginning at 3:00, there will be a short visitation at College Park Cemetery followed by a graveside service and inurnment with Rev. Brian Carroll of Northside Baptist Church officiating.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Ms. Manautou. May God help you to bear the burden of your grief during this difficult time. (Psalm 55:22) Warm Regards, Kay

Kay B. - December 10, 2016 at 05:05 PM