“ I remember the first time I saw Kenneth, it was at Harmony Grove Baptist Church . I was just 7 and he was 8. We spent a lot of time together since my Mom and his Mom were good friends and our Daddy's worked together at the plumbing business he Daddy owned, and I was best friends with his 2 sister's. We grew up together from children, to teenagers We went to the same schools. I remember he liked to scared the day lights a outta me, cause he liked to drive fast in that hot rod of his. The funniest memory I have is him spending the night at my house right after he was in a bad car accident. I was spending the night at his house with his sister. Well, him and my brother slept in my room.

The next morning I come home and find cotton all over my floor from him scratching with a coat hanger down in his cast from his broken leg. I was so mad, but later found it funny. I remember going on my very first date with him, that my Mom set up, to Roosevelt drive-in, we saw "Walking Tall".

I remember the Harmony Grove softball team that my hubby played in and he coached.

I remember his and Debbie's wedding day and how beautiful the candle light ceremony was.

I could go on and on, but I would have a book when I was done. Yes, we drifted apart over the years, but I always had such sweet, sweet memories.

My heart breaks for his family and the pain his leaving has caused, especially for Debbie.

Heaven is where he is now and it's comforting to know when this life is over, We will see him again some day.

Prayers for the family during this very difficult time.

Sending hugs and love.
