“ We loved this sweet man for so many different reasons. He was the dearest and most loyal friend anyone could ever have. He was a wonderful Christian husband, father, and friend. We will be praying for Maydell, Darlene & Wayne during such a difficult time. We are so sorry that we can't be there to hug each of you, but please know we send our love. God Bless each of you.

Condolences to the family, Mr Rutledge was a very nice man with a kind heart. Growing up on Old Colony Rd as our neighbor, Mom would not buy gas from anyone else and Dad and I both always trusted his advise on cars and parts. He will be missed by all that had the pleasure of knowing him.
