“ Angela,

So very sorry to hear of Kevin's passing. If I had heard one day before I'd have been at the services. I had known Kevin for years from when he was instructing at the Hapeville Senior Center, and then at the Bowden Center.

We talked on many subjects and he was always able to add intelligently to the conversation. This hit me very hard and I'm just now getting better. I will miss him very much, and feel very much alone as I had only a couple of friends and now one less.

Well Kevin, I'll see you on the other side and it will only be a short time as we discussed as we both knew what is soon to come upon the world. Bye for now. Rick “ Kevin, you were an amazing guy who touched many lives while here. Your infectious smile and quick wit made you a favorite among many. While those you left behind are heart-broken, we know God had a plan for you that we'll all know someday. Until we meet again, may you rest in peace, and your wonderful family take comfort in knowing that you are okay.

“ Kevin, I love you and I am going to miss laughing with you at work and a staff meetings. You know we were not allowed to sit across from each other because we would break out laughing for no reason at all. Truly the best staff meetings! I loved that we were able to both play the piano and shared a common love for music. I will always have those memories and right now I have a big smile on my face. Once again, thanks to you brother.

Love you,

“ Mr. Kevin will be missed by so many people especially me. I met Mr. Kevin at the Bowden Center this summer. I was in his guitar class. He was a wonderful fun person to be around. My sister Brenda and I enjoyed his company. I was learning how to play my guitar and my sister Brenda was in the class hoping and wishing one day to learn how to play, The class was working a song by Sam Cooke, Stand By Me...Mr. Kevin and the class played the song with their guitars and Brenda and I did the singing.He teased my sister saying..you sing since you are not playing a guitar...and she did..We both start singing and it was sounding pretty good util we did it a second time. This was a good memory of Mr. Kevin. He offered the Seniors at the Bowden Center so much of himself. I am truly gong to miss his beautiful smiling face and kind words. My prayers are with all of you at this time for my heart is sad. My new friend, and teacher has transitioned to another place of happiness. Peace unto all of you. He was an Awesome person to know. I am happy for the short time that I knew him.
