“ Kevin was like more than just my friend. He was a big brother to me. We didn't talk much, didn't get to know each other much, but he has been a great friend, not to mention that he is a great father to those kids. RIP my friend, RIP. I don't know how else to describe you, but you left us so soon.

“ I miss you so much brother. As we grew up and had our own families . One thing never changed was our love for one another . I miss how no matter the situation you always made everyone around you laugh . Your love and dedication to your children . The lessons you would give me on drawing I will never forget . The moment I was so scared giving birth to My daughter you were right by my side giving me all the encouragement I could ever get . I miss you brother and love you forever . Play a game of yahtzee with Ole Granny & Mom for me . Give them lots of love from me and I know you three are now watching down on us to protect us from any harm . Till we meet again Brother I love you.

“ My big brother was caring, smart, funny and ambitious. He always had my back and I had his. He loved his family and kids so much and would give the shirt off his back if you needed it. My brother Kevin was my rock when my Mom passed away. Always giving words of encouragement and reminding me how strong and loved I am. He was taken from us so young. He had so many plans and things left undone and I miss him so much. He never did wrong in my eyes. He will never be forgotten and is loved and missed by so many. Rest in Heaven big Brother. Say Hello to Mom and Ole Granny for me. I'll miss you always, Until we meet again...
I LOVE YOU MORE!
