

Kimberly Corley Pulliam

February 24, 1964 - April 3, 2026

Kimberly Corley Pulliam, born on February 24, 1964, in Atlanta, Georgia, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on Friday, April 3, 2026. She was the cherished daughter of the late Roger and Ann Corley. Kim was preceded in death by her grandparents, Roy and Rosemary Smith, and Bobby and Betty Hamil; her aunt, Judy Pritchard; and her beloved friend, Richard Chancy.

Kim is survived by her beloved husband, Chris Pulliam; her daughter, Kelly Pulliam; her son, Gregory Pulliam (Adriane); and her adored grandson, Wyatt Pulliam. Her brother, Glenn Corley, also survives her, along with her uncles, Mike Smith (Rhonda), and Marshall Smith (Kay).

Kim shared a special bond with her cousin and best friend, Kristy Chancy Stuler (Wayne) and her daughter, Jordan Chancy. In addition to these close family ties, Kim is remembered by several cousins and extended family members who were touched by her warmth and kindness.

A funeral service for Kim will be held Monday, April 6, 2026 at 11 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home with Pastor Dusty Wammack and Pastor Buddy Waldron officiating. The family will receive friends two hours prior to the service. Interment will follow at Holly Hill Memorial Park.

Her gentle spirit and unwavering love for her family will remain a guiding light for all who knew her.

Chris, Kelly and Greg, your Mom was the sweetest person inside and out. She was always smiling and had the best personality. I always loved being with her. I have so many wonderful memories of her when our girls were in school together, going to the lake, sports or just hanging out. She will be missed terribly, but the memories will last forever in your hearts. Love to you all
