“ While I did not know Krista in her adult life well, I surely remember her smile and kind spirit as a child.
Krista brought a life to a room. Her smile. Her positive attitude. Her kind and gentle way.
I am so truly sorry for the loss of your daughter, mother, fiancé, and friend.
I take comfort in knowing Krista is watching over us all as she walks with Jesus.
Krista, you are unforgettable!! You will be with me always, I look forward to a time when we are together again!
XOXO

“ To the love ones of Krista. I never met her, but I can tell she was loved by the comments here. I send my condolences to you. When we lose someone we love the pain is like having a long sword run through us. There is no tragedy so great that our heavenly Father cannot comfort us. Jesus will bind the brokenhearted and comfort all who mourn.
In the Bible death is describe as "the last enemy". It breaks into our lives often completely unprepared. God promise at [Revelation 21 : 4] God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death , neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be anymore pain: the former things are passed away". This is a wonderful hope!
Never again will we see our loved ones stolen away from us! I hope you can find comfort in this. If you would welcome more information on this or why does God allow suffering? Please visit www.jw.org
