“ Im so sorry for what you both are going through. Steve and Kyle were awesome men and fun guys to be around. I know every time we would come over, it wasn't planned to be long but it always ended up like that because Derrick, Steve, and Kyle would just sit outside and talk forever! I was lucky to be able to know them both, and I am thankful for that. They are both in a awesome place watching over you and your mom and all the babies in the family. No pain or sadness. We hope to see yall tomorrow if all goes as planned, but if we can't make it, our thoughts and prayers are with you both. Stay strong, and most of all be there for each other.

“ The Bible says rejoice when one of His children enter heaven..for heaven we are so very thankful but the loss of a son, daddy and brother is so very heart breaking. My prayer is for peace and strength for all of you. Kyle was so sweet and always so respectful to me...I loved him and he loved me...he was one of my kids and I will always remember him and his sweet family love and prayers

“ Kyle, there's so many memories that go through my head when I think of all the fun times we had in our adolescent years, prom, and even after high school, we always had a blast together. Now you're gone, and we may never understand why things happened the way they did, but just know that you will be greatly missed and loved forever. ? Alexis

“ The staff and members of Palmetto Baptist Church are so shocked and feel such a loss in the death of Kyle. Words cannot express to his family how much we will miss him at PBC. We came to know Kyle through his work with us at our Food Pantry. For many months he was here every week to help in any way he could. He was always very nice and respectful to all of us working the Food Pantry, and those who were here to receive donations. I will certainly miss seeing him each week. Only God knows why things happen as they do, just try to trust Him in what decisions he makes. May you each be able to see Kyle again one day.
