“ To the Chamroeun Family:

Sorry for the loss of your dear son. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. The scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your son in the near future, not in an unknown heaven, but right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. (Please read John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:9-11,29) If your heart yearns to see your son again, Jehovah's Witnesses will gladly assist you to learn how you can make this sure hope your very own. Why not contact them at www.watchtower.org.

“ I was not honored to know your son or your family. I just want to say how sorry I am for your loss and how thankful I am to your son for defending our great nation. I have a son who is in college and in Air Force ROTC and I have great anxiety over his decision because I am afraid for him as well as all the brave military service personell serving in this present age. I know that we must have these brave ones to defend our land and I appreciate their decision but it sure is hard to let them go. Again I am so sorry for your loss. I grew up in Union City and Fairburn.

“ My sympathies and prayers to James' family in this period of loss and grief. I already knew of James' patriotism and service to our country, as I would work on the family's taxes for his mother, Weena.
Salutations to James' faithful devotion, honorable life, and his heroic sacrifice to a worthy cause.

“ My prayers are with your family during this difficult time. James was a student in my class during his junior year at Creekside. It is difficult finding the correct words to say when a family has endured a great loss, but James is a hero, and he lost his life for a noble cause. God bless your family.
