“ Larry, always seemed to me as a happy-go-lucky fellow. He was always friendly and I believe he would do anything he could to help a person, in need. He is a family orientated person. Our condolences to family and friends. May he rest in peace.

Bobby, you described him very well. We sure are going to miss him. He could make you laugh in a second. He has been a part of the family for so long, I considered him a brother for sure. R.I.P. Larry, until I see you again.
