Sending much love from Canada as you celebrate the life of a wonderful man I am saddened that I never had the honor to meet. But I know his son and how much love and admiration he had for him....how much he looked up to him. How much he will miss him and the type of man his dad taught him to be. I can only imagine your loss. I am so sorry. Sending prayers for lots of grace, strength and comfort. hugs

“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Larry was a good man and loved his Lord. I know he would want people, who do not the Lord, to accept HIM as their savior. He will be missed by everyone, but take comfort in knowing where he is.

“ I still find it hard to believe Larry is gone but I do know that he's with his Lord & Savior. What a good man he was and a good brothers-in-law. He sure was proud of his grandkids. R.I.P. Larry.
