“ I met Larry some years ago, as a homeowner with an emergency. He and I were quickly visiting while he worked to restore my water. Soon we discovered that we'd walked the same path in the Fairburn and Tyrone areas, and his life stories were so rewarding. He was a very likable man. My sympathy to the family.

“ Larry gave many hours and hard work to helping Tobesofkee Farm become a place families will enjoy for many years. He could do anything—carpentry, plumbing, roofing, masonry and on and on. His smile could light up a dim pole barn event center and there was no doubt that if he started a job, he would finish it in cold, heat, rain, using knowledge he'd acquired all throughout his life. Rest in peace, dear man. You did well.
