“ Oh where to start he was always ready with a joke or the punchline I loved going to the races & the dirt not so much the dirty bathrooms not being able to hear till the next day my body vibrating all the way home.. I loved him taking us to Ryan's & ice cream ..oh you never liked having to leave but I got excited when Kim got excited cause you were coming . I loved nanny and all my family & I know u loved me too of course I didn't have a chance when Kim arrived but I wouldn't trade it for the world...Except for momma being sad, Kim crying cause you left, silly me what's the big deal he'll be back next week. Kids are funny.I miss my childhood family and I'll miss you forever until I see you in heaven. Give my brother Keith a big man hug for me tell him momma still grieves for him aswell and I'll stay behind and look out for my little sister like I use too I know her heart is broken. I'll try to help keep her company till we all meet again...I never told momma about wrestler 1& 2 and Abduuuula the Butchhhher..that's how they said it exactly and that crazy one with his hair all in his face.....WOW that was a life long lesson...love me Rita your other one...

“ I have over 40 years of memories with Larry, all drag racing related! He was a fun guy and a good friend. I haven't seen him since Southeastern Dragway closed down but thought and asked about him often. I missed him. Rest In Peace my old friend.
