“ Today is Lauri’s Birthday and it popped up on my FB. Lauri was the type of person that lit up the room with her contagious smile 😊. She would pray with me, when I was in need of positive words. She was like an angel and knew exactly what to say. I know that she is rejoicing with the Lord and not suffering.

“ I met Lauri at the nail place when I moved here in February, she was such a beautiful person. I attended church with her once and just loved speaking with her. I am so so sorry she is no longer here. I tried calling her phone and got no answer. The last I spoke with her she was so excited about getting married. I love how she would ask me "what did God tell you?" when I shared some things with her. I remember rubbing her feet with oils and praying she would be out of pain. We know she is pain free and perfected in the arms of Jesus. I KNOW I WILL SEE THIS BEAUTIFUL SISTER AGAIN!. We had such an instant bond because of Christ. I am sad, so sad, but happy she is at peace forever now. She is someone I really wish I had more time with, but I am so blessed to have met and known her for the short time that I did. She was truly a blessing here on earth, the closest to an angel I've ever met!! I am so sorry for her family.

“ My most funniest memories of Mrs. Lauri. Was when she would help me get my kids from the after school care, and then take them to get ice cream @ the nearest Dairy Queen before dinner. My kids simply adored, respected, and loved her. When hearing of her departure to Heaven, they were both Happy & Sadden. She definitely left a foot print of love on our hearts. I attended church with Mrs. Lauri as well, I'm glad that God allowed our paths to cross. Heaven definitely received back, what they sent. Forever in our hearts ❤️, Sherri Hall, Nakia Hall, Edgar Hall.

“ I played softball with Lori many years ago. I remember she prayed for our team before a game one day and remember her closing with “in the precious name of Jesus”. I had never heard that before. It connected with me so deeply, that I mention it today. I’m sure it was a beautiful home going for Lori. I’m so sorry for her families loss. It is a great one.

“ I have been lucky to be the Koth's neighbor for 20 yrs now. Laurie was always a good neighbor and kind to me.

One Easter many years ago I was unemployed. My doorbell rang and there was Laurie standing there. She told she had been worrying about me and praying for me since I was out of work and had brought me an Easter gift. As she said she was wondering what Jesus might have given me since I was not working. She handed me a gift bag with a loaf of bread and some snacks. Although I was not destitute by any means, I humbly accepted the gifts knowing it was nice that someone I didn't know that well at that time was caring enough to think of my well-being during the Easter season.

Laurie was a kind and caring person who will be missed by her family, neighbors and friends.
