“ I only new Leanne for a short time through her journey with cancer. As I visited with her we learned so much about each other and found so many things we had in common. We love the Lord. His mercies even in illness never fail. We shared a passion for sewing, quilting, crocheting, and knitting. If we had known each other earlier, we would have been fast friends. I was blessed to have known her for as long as I did. And... I know the angels are singing as they welcome LeeAnn home.

“ *My beloved sister, Leanne, there are no words that can express my deep sorrow and sadness. Our many years of memories will not fade away. I will cherish them forever in my heart. “ Leanne was more than a sister.

She was my best friend and confidant growing up. She was my partner in crime as well as partner in doing good. She watched my back and kept me out of trouble. She led me spiritually. Was my partner in soul winning, teaching Sunday school, working in the bus ministry and most importantly she prayed for me. We can go long stretches without talking but when we talk, it's as we were never apart. I miss her already but praise God she has a glorified body! She has joined our heavenly family and we will all unite one day. Praise the Lord! She leaves a legacy of love and service that can be seen in her children and grandchildren. Psalms 116:15 - Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.
