Hi Cheryl, it saddened me to hear of the passing of Lee, my prayers are with you and the rest of the family. Lee was such a beautiful person inside and out, I remember Sarah 's baptism at the church, how much he went out of his way to help me set up and decorate downstairs, and they way he welcomed me in the joy class. May he Rest In Peace, he was wonderful. Person.

“ Cheryl, Andrea and Ian,

Words cannot express the sadness we feel in Lee's passing. Our family is keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers.

For the past 23 years Lee and his family have been our neighbors. It must have been fate when we purchased a house next door to fellow, transplanted Iowan's. We couldn't have asked for better neighbors over the years. We will miss seeing that shock of white hair as he maintained his lawn/garden, his friendly wave, his quick smile and his Iowan sense of humor. Lee, you will certainly be missed, rest in peace.

God bless you and comfort you,

Mary Ann, Mark & Brad
