“ I never met Leigha but I understand the skateboard park in PTC was built in memory of her. We moved here two years ago from Nashville and our son Micah did not want to move and leave behind his skate friends at 6th Ave. Today, you can find him skating at the PTC skatepark every day and he met all his closest friends there. I wanted you all to know how thankful we are for the park. Sincerely, Jim Lee (Tyrone)

“ Barteski Family,

My apologies for the loss of Leigha. She was an amazing person inside and out, a true inspiration through her battle. I know she is smiling her beautiful smile upon all who had the honor to know her. I hope you find peace in knowing just how much she was loved and by knowing just how many lives she impacted in the time she was here. Prayers for your family.
