

Leland Alfred Langley

July 7, 1981 - October 14, 2025

Leland Alfred Langley, born on July 7, 1981, passed away peacefully on October 14, 2025, at the age of 44. He was a beloved son, father, brother, and friend whose presence will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Leland had a passion for life that was evident in the joy he found in spending time with his cherished family and friends. Known to many as a "Righteous Dude," Leland brought laughter and warmth to every gathering. He was an avid enthusiast of games, finding delight in the worlds of Magic: The Gathering and Dungeons & Dragons, where his creativity and camaraderie shone brightly.

He is preceded in death by his father, Leland Langley. Leland is survived by his loving mother, Lisa Langley; his devoted daughters, Angel (Teddy) Faillo and Nova Faillo; and his adored granddaughter, Halo Hartwell. His memory will also be treasured by his brothers, Irby (Sarah) Langley and David (Jaimee) Langley, along with many nieces and nephews who held him dear.

Leland's legacy of kindness, humor, and love will forever remain in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

“ *Share a memory? I could share a thousand. All the time spent playing Magic: the Gathering in school instead of uh...whatever we were supposed to be doing. He swore I ran the stop sign at Cascade Palmetto doing about 100 mph (probably correct).
Hanging out playing video games (I've still got David's copy of Final Fantasy III). I'd always think of Lee when I'd be digging through boxes at comic shops and find piles of Conan. He was the M:tG Goblin King.*

Lee was one of my most long term and closest friends, and I will miss him dearly.

“ *My heart and all my sympathies are with Lee's family during this difficult time. Lee and I met in culinary school and dated for 5 years, even got engaged. Although it didn't work out,
I'm so glad he was able to find happiness again, as he truly deserved it. He was a very good man, and will certainly be missed.*

Ally, thanks for your kind words. We all thought very highly of you when you two were together. I'm certainly going to miss the ol' ogre. What a great guy, and one of my closest friends.

“ I like to think of Lee by how much he loved the people around him. He was so proud of our girls and loved having a family. He was excited to be an Opa and cherished all of the family, especially all the nieces and nephews. His favorite spot was the rocking chair on our front porch. He was the best to play games with but was a sore loser. He was sure that we were always cheating when he didn't win. He made Holidays fun, enjoyed food, opening gifts and was kind to animals. Lee was the best napper often accompanied by an animal that he swore he did not like. He could out snore anyone. He liked music, enjoyed playing his guitar, loved the mountains, rainy days, going to the barber, and getting pedicures. He was so important and so loved.

“ I’m so sorry to hear about Lee’s passing. Even though I only met him a few times, I remember his kind presence and the warmth he carried with him. It breaks my heart to know he’s gone so soon. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. May you find comfort in the love and support that surrounds you, and in the memories that will always keep Lee close to your hearts. Life can be fragile, and his loss is a reminder of how important it is to hold each other with care and compassion. Wishing peace for Lee’s spirit and healing for all who loved him.
