“ Please accept my sincere wish for a heavenly peace in your loss of Jack. I was aware of his friendship, and helpfulness, through my mother Reba Brown. His rare kindness and can-do attitude were a blessing to many, and now a legacy. May God bless you.

We are praying that God will comfort you with his peace that passes all our understanding. Our hope is in the promises of our Christian faith that one day we will be reunited with those we love in that perfect home that Jesus went to prepare for us in heaven.
