

Leward Leon "Lewie" Dunn

June 5, 1961 - June 29, 2024

Leward Leon Dunn was born June 5, 1961. Better known as Lewie.

Lewie went to be with Jesus June 29, 2024. Lewie was preceded in death by his parents, Guy Randall Dunn and Sara Dunn. Lewie is survived by his cousins Phil Johnson of McDonough, Georgia and Payton Johnson. Also, his close lifelong friend Cheryl Johnston and his close and special friend, Loretta Williams. As well as numerous other cousins and friends.

He enjoyed participating in Revolutionary War reenactment battles with his grandfather Ervin Garner. He was a member of the Marquis de Lafayette Chapter Sons of the American Revolution in Fayetteville.

You may have also seen Lewie dressed as a clown when he participated in the many parades held by the Shriners, which he also enjoyed.

Lewie was a wealth of knowledge who enjoyed History, reading, hiking, photography and building bird houses. He won several awards of which he was very proud for his photos and bird houses.

Lewie was a 1979 graduate of Woodward Academy. He also held degrees in American and European History from Mercer University as well as the University of West Georgia.

Lewie was awarded Volunteer of the Year for his dedication to The Atlanta Fulton County Library System at the Fairburn Library in 2019 which he enjoyed.

One of his proudest accomplishments was his research, working along Michael G. Gunther, Ph.D., in the historical findings of The Campbell County Soldier Boys Monument. He received State Recognition for this research. He was a genius when it came to Genealogy and Historical research.

Lewie will be missed by all who knew and loved him and his contributions to his community which he loved.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, July 27, 2024 at Shadnor Baptist Church in Union City from 12 o'clock until 2 o'clock.
