“ Dianne was such a hoot! I will forever treasure our girls trip to the mountains back in October 1990! What a group and what fun we had! We will miss her laughter and sense of humor. Guess shes hanging out with Mama now making her laugh.

“ Judy, so sorry to her about your sister, passing away. I have not went down that path yet, but have experienced losing, the love of my life, after 36 wonderful years of marriage. But its been 9 years, this passed February 6. God brought me to it, and God gave me the grace to get through it, and hell do the same for you. You are in our prayers.

“ Dianne, Im truly blessed to have you as my sister in-law. you and Judy are truly very special, most loving, accepting and understanding sisters anyone could ever ask to have in our lives. You are so loved and you have the most purest and loving heart of anyone Ive ever known. You will forever be missed and in our hearts. You will never be forgotten. Our boys miss and love you their Aunt dearly. Heaven has gained another Angel. Fly be free and watch over us ALL

We love you ~ to the moon and beyond~

Love always,

Bethany, Wayne & our two boys
