“ Loretta was not only beautiful in her outward appearance but had a heart of gold. She was a close friend of my mom & dad's for several years before my family moved back to Newnan from Florida. Mother and Daddy loved Loretta like a daughter, and she loved them in return. She was very special and never wavered in her faith and trust in God. Loretta was loved and will be missed by many. What an exceptional lady! Praying for continued comfort and prayers for her family as well as sweet memories in the years to come.

“ Aunt Loretta was so very special to me. My Mom and I would visit the family often when I was little and I so looked forward to it; from the Fairburn house to the Luthersville house. She would let me play in her "makeup" and as we all know she had plenty of it. My memories of her are so vivid and will never fade. I love you Aunt Loretta.
