“ Those that know me know I don't usually struggle with something to say. The passing of my Dad has been surreal. I always hoped we could connect on a higher level but that was not to be in this life. Perhaps when we see each other in the next phase of existence we will have the time denied us in life. Rest In Peace and know I am thankful that you gave me life. Your son. Victor.

“ My Dad refused to be called Father, because he said there is one Father who is in Heaven that only can carry that term. He was a true believer in Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. Lowell (the second) struggled with this life on a daily basis just as his Dad before him did. I hope we all carry with us some type of learning and every day is a new day. Thanks to my family for everything. May Mr. Hendley Ford rest in God's eternity.

“ I know I did not get to see my brother much and his family the last years, but we all did have great times together when our kids were younger. We would all go to Ma and Pa's house to get together and eat. Talk and have fun. I will miss you dear brother. Janice
