“ My thoughts and prayers are with Wayne and the family. I worked with LuAnn at Eastside and she was a special lady. She had so much faith in her and wanted to live as long as she could. She loved her husband and girls and especially those grandbabies. We shared alot of pictures with each other. She will truly be missed but I know she is home now and has no more pain. Love you LuAnn

“ There are absolutely no words to describe the beautiful LuAnn. There are no flowers that could begin to show her beauty or her amazing gift to this world. All I can say, right now, is I am thankful for everything you were for my kids and for me. You were truly the other mama to them. My heart hurts, but I am so thankful to our Father and His Son that I will get to see you again ... on those golden streets of Heaven. I know your mansion will be huge ... okay if I go visit? I love you, Lu.

“ I met LuAnn when I had kids at Sara Harp Minter and I can honestly say that she has a lasting impact on everyone she ever met. Our daughters became friends and I can say for certain she will never be forgotten. 12 years ago we moved back home to Iowa but we still share funny stories and beautiful memories of a kind, caring and amazing woman. I can only hope I am half the fighter, friend, and woman she was. Rest in peace in His loving arms!

“ She influenced and impacted all of our lives as youth and much of her is written into each of us as adults. We would not be the people we are today without her. May her legacy live on as we live out our lives fully.

“ LuAnn was a great friend and classmate at GMA. We took a class with just 3 of us. Music Theory. We goofed off and laughed so hard in that class that the teacher renamed in Music THERAPY 🤔. She was SUCH a kick and brightened everyone's day. Until that great morning, my friend. I'll miss you.
