

Lucida Gail Couch

February 18, 1954 - November 9, 2024

Lucida Gail Couch, born on February 18, 1954, passed away peacefully on November 9, 2024, at the age of 70. A dedicated and honorable individual, she proudly served her country and retired from the U.S. Army.

Lucida was a woman of varied interests, finding joy and amusement in gambling, particularly slot machines. Her love for Christmas was evident in her extensive collection of Santa decorations, which brought delight to all who visited her home during the festive season. She had a fondness for sweet tea, a simple pleasure that brought her comfort throughout her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence Edward Donaldson and Dorothy Pate Donaldson, her brother, Steve "Santa" Donaldson, and her brother-in-law, Winston Mitchell.

Lucida is survived by her devoted husband of 25 years, James L. Couch. She leaves behind a loving family, including her daughter, Amber "Wendy" Eubanks; her son, Nick Eubanks; her sister, Linda Mitchell; and her beloved grandchildren, Alex and Eli, along with 11 additional grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Her memory will also be cherished by her nephew, Shane Mitchell, and her niece, Mandy Bush.

A graveside service in honor of Lucida's life will be held on Thursday,

November 14, 2024, at 1 o'clock at Forest Hills Memorial Gardens. Family and friends are invited to gather and pay their respects as they celebrate the life of a remarkable woman who touched the hearts of many.
