“ Mr Ranson was such a loving, unassuming man of character. As a humble man, he not only served but loved those who walked the halls at ACS and I believed became one of the most beloved figures by both students and teachers alike. I feel honored to have known him and wish the family peace and love during this time.

“ Timmy, Melanie, Jordan, & Jennifer:
My heart is with you guys and the rest of the family. I have many memories with PawPaw and the whole family. I know he was y'all's rock and will be deeply missed. Hold all of your memories of him close and let knowing he is no longer struggling and is now up there watching over you all. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. PawPaw Ransom (L W) you will be greatly missed by many.

“ Mr. Ransom has always been one of the most kindest men we have had the pleasure of knowing. We met Mr. Ransom at Arlington Christian School and he always had a smile on his face and loved the kids. He would give MaKenna Juicy Fruit gum almost every day and she would help him as he made his rounds at the school. He will be dearly missed, but never forgotten. Love, Jimmy, Shannon, Bailey, Taylor and MaKenna Scott.

“ L.W. Ransom may be the hardest-working, kindest, humblest, and most unassuming man we have ever met. As a teacher at Arlington Christian school for 24 years where we both worked, he always was helpful when I or anyone else needed assistance. He "adopted" thousands of kids over the years during his time of service to the school, including my own two children, and made them all feel special in too many ways to mention. The number of hours he spent on campus was immense, but the lessons in ethics, kindest, thoughtfulness, and initiative are a priceless legacy he left to all of us. To all of L.W.'s family members, we pray for comfort for you and peace at this difficult time. LW was truly a rock and a family patriarch and we will all miss him so much....yet, we are all better people for having known him.

“ LW was such a kind, hard working, and humble, man who truly impacted my life during my high school years. He always had a smile on his face and a quick wit to match. I really appreciated him both during high school and in the years after. I am fortunate to have called him my friend.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of LW Ransom (Mr. Ransom). I spent 6 years at Arlington Christian and Mr. Ransom was one of then kindest, most good-hearted people I have known in my life - from an adolescent to a young adult I have fond memories and the utmost respect for the man he was. I recall his quiet dignity and willingness to help others. Better for having known him.
