“ My dear big brother I am just at a loss for words and understanding. I miss you so much already. I will miss my text messages of your beloved cats Buddy and Frankie that you would send me just to brighten my days with what Mike and I were going through and your calls. I am so proud of the man you were and all the obstacles you overcame. You were a true inspiration. I will hold on to all our childhood memories of you letting me hang with you and your buddies playing football, baseball, and even basketball with your baby sister. I will find peace and solace knowing you are with your favorite person in the world our Grandfather Yarbrough in heaven and there will never be any more pain or suffering for you!!! Rest in peace my big brother I will always love you and never forget you.
