“ So many left behind will miss your kind soul and infectious smile. But I know you are holding your beautiful grandson. And being in the presence of our Jesus. Rest in peace. Praying for all the loved ones that could not join you on this journey.

“ Lynn, You were a beautiful soul and loving spirit. Time and life are so fragile. Who knew our talk a couple of ago would be the last time I had the chance to hear your voice. It was a pleasure to work with you, to laugh with you and to call you friend. We didn't get a chance that pizza, but I will make sure to grab me a Dr.Pepper just for you. Don't fuss with your Mom, hug on your grand baby and say hi to God for me. I'll try my best. Rest well my friend. Love you.

“ I love you so much, Momma. Even though I know you’re in the best place, my world was just ruined. It hurts so much. I simply don’t know how to live this life without you. You were the VERY BEST mother anyone could have ever had. You loved me so much and showed it every single day of my life. I’m so thankful for the 30 years I had with you, but it will never be enough time. No one should ever have to be without their mother this young. Please watch over me and help give me the strength to try and make it through this. You knew better than anyone how horribly I deal with stuff like this. Especially when it’s you. I love you, I love you, I love youuuuuuuu 🥹🥹🥹🥹 I hope to see you soon.

“ Lynn and I found each other on Virtual Memorials after we had both lost grandsons. Her warmth, wit, depth of character and loving nature drew me to her. We talked on the phone almost every day. Lynn helped me survive through the hardest of times. My most sincere sympathies to her family, friends and all whose lives she touched. She will never be forgotten.
