“ I am so very, very sorry for your loss. I have known Frances for most of my life and have always been amazed at what a strong woman she was.

We all had so much fun and shared so many hours around her table when she lived in Union City. Great Memories.

I will truly miss her.

With Deepest Sympathy. We are lifting you up in prayer for Strength and Comfort in the coming Days and Weeks.

“ I remember all the time we spent with all of you growing up, we had so much fun. Frances was always funny as I remember. I hated leaving Atlanta because we had always been close to mother's side of the family & had so much fun with all of you.

I love you Frances
