“ Margaret was great woman. She wore many hats . She loved and helped many people, including our Ministry. Apostle Kilgore nicknamed her Red because she had beautiful red hair and she didn't take no mess. She will be greatly missed. The last time I visited her was in 2021. I stopped by her office. It had been a long time since I had seen her, but her spirit was the same. She never changed, always met with a hug and kiss. RIH my friend. You served us all well. Let your light shine on in the heavenly realm.
