

Margaret Elkins

June 18, 1922 - August 1, 2012

Margaret Lucille Cooper Elkins age 90 of Forest Park, GA went to be with the Lord on Wednesday August 1, 2012. Margaret was born in Hogansville on June 18, 1922. She grew up in nearby LaGrange and moved to Atlanta in the 1950's. Margaret is survived by her daughter Beth Elkins Caudle and son-in-law Jeff Caudle of Tyrone, GA, nephew Allen Guimarin, wife Pam and great nephews and great niece Mark, Micah and Marla. She is also survived by her step-grandchildren Brandy and Jeffrey, Jr., and step-great grandchildren, Shelby, Jordan, Haylee and Rylee. Margaret was predeceased by her husband of 48 years, Billy Frank Elkins in 2002. She was also predeceased by her parents and 4 siblings. Margaret was a faithful servant of her Lord Jesus Christ her entire life, devoted to her Baptist faith. Margaret served in the U.S. Navy as a Pharmacist's Assistant in World War II; she then attended nursing school at Piedmont Hospital in Atlanta obtaining her LPN license. Afterwards she went to business school at Georgia State University and then worked for Smith Container Corporation for 10 years. She then moved her career and served faithfully as an Accountant for the State of Georgia Department of Corrections, retiring in 1991. Margaret will be remembered lovingly by her many friends and family, whom she loved so dearly, most of all by her only child, daughter, and best friend Beth.
