Beautiful video of a lovely lady and her family, especially the pictures of Margaret with Sarah. The butterflies are a special symbol of new life, which Margaret now has.

“ What a lovely tribute to Mrs. Margaret, a wonderful woman who shared her many talents with so many.

Our family came to know Mrs. Margaret at Southside Theatre Guild: at theatre auditions, Mrs. Margaret made sure that everyone who was auditioning filled out their 'bio and background forms,' and she always had a word of encouragement for the folks who were trying out for a show.

Mrs. Margaret was especially kind to the young actors and she offered encouragement to so many.

Mrs. Margaret encouraged our son Nick to try out for several roles. We will always be appreciative for all that she did, for so many.

Our thoughts and prayers go to Glen, Margaret and their daughter Sara - and the Emory family.

“ Mrs. Margaret was such a special lady with many talents and gifts. She was a no nonsense person, and she had a wit as sharp as a knif.

A few years ago my husband and I were camping with Glenn, Martha, and Mrs. Margaret. My son Nick came and joined us for a couple days. Nick and Mrs. Margaret were talking, and Nick asked her what type movies she liked. Mrs. Margaret laughed and told Nick she hadn't been to a movie since the 1970's. Well it was at that point, Nick decided to change that. I can't remember the movie, I think it might have been a Star Wars movie, but we decided we were going to go. Mrs. Margaret said she couldn't go because she didn't have a date. My son Nick said of course you do, you are going to be my date. Nick was as tickled as Mrs. Margaret. They had a great time. Nick was sending selfies of him and Mrs. Margaret to his friends. Nick was so impressed with Mrs. Margaret's interest and how sharp she was. From that day on she was known as his girlfriend. He was very sad to hear of her passing as we all are. Rest in pease dear friend ❤️

“ Glen, I'm so very sorry to hear about your mom! I feel what you are feeling! It's all still so fresh for me to loose that last parent! Aunt Margaret was a precious, feisty lady! As a child, I was a little terrified of her but as an adult, I could see her in a different light & knew she was a gentle lamb!!! So very caring & genuine, she was!!! I know you will mss her! Love & hugs to all of you!

“ Margaret has been my friend since our children, (her Glen, my Saralyn), were toddlers together in the nursery at Church of the Resurrection, (Episcopal), in East Point. Margaret kept the nursery while I sang in the choir. Margaret's comments about Glen and Saralyn were, "Glen will graduate high school dragging his blanket, and Saralyn will graduate sucking her thumb...!" Of course that didn't happen, but Margaret and I had lots of good laughs about it over the many years since then!

It was so sad to see vibrant Margaret succumb to the horrible disease of dementia. Sad, too, to lose her, but now she is healed.

Love and Prayers,
