

Margie Bennett

February 13, 1940 - April 21, 2024

Margie Lou Stanaford Bennett of Newnan Georgia passed away peacefully, April 21, 2024, at Piedmont Newnan Hospital surrounded by her precious family. She was the daughter of Gladys Hinkle and Francis Stanaford. She was preceded in death by her parents, a daughter, Teresa Mize Hood, her former husband, Gene Mize, (who was the father of her three girls), a sister-in-law, Jean Mincy Stanaford, and a niece, Linda Stanaford. Margie is survived by two daughters, Kim Mize Hose and Jeri Mize Maddox (husband Joe), a brother Otis Lee Stanaford, seven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, Newnan, Georgia.

Margie graduated Loyall High School, Loyall, Kentucky in 1958 and attended Cumberland College, Williamsburg, Kentucky, where she was majoring in music. After she married and had her family, she began teaching private piano lessons and taught for a number of years. Also, she worked for the Federal Aviation Administration from which she retired.

She was a fun-loving daughter, sister, music teacher, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and friend. She loved music, especially the Atlanta Symphony.

The visitation will be Wednesday, April 24, at 12:00 noon followed by the funeral at 1:00 pm at the Parrot Funeral Home in Fairburn, Georgia officiated by Ross Anderson. Burial will be at the Holly Hill Memorial Park.
