“ It is with great feelings that we as common human beings see this Homecoming in sadness and in sorrow because a true love one of ours has departed. However if we could just take a brief second to reflect upon the words of Paul the prophet who said" to be absent from the body to be present with the Lord." Those who have died in the Lord are with Christ. My dear Sophia and family your loved one is truly a gem loaned to us by God. If this was not so she would not have shined while here on Earth. There is evidence that she shined through the many of people who knew of her, who loved her, and who will remember her as the days are long. I wish you all love, comfort and cherishable memories of this wonderful spirit who God allowed us to borrow in a moment in time. Every moment in time is and should be cherished.. Mrs. Emmanuel's eyes maybe closed but she is just resting. No more pain, no more frustration, no more anguish. May she rest in peace and you find strength to carry on day by day.
