“ Marie was my favorite aunt. Carolyn and I would get excited when we got to visit her. She would always have banana pudding waiting for us. I thought she was the very best cook in the world. Marie spent many hours with us reading to us, playing games - anything we wanted. She always had time for us and it seemed she enjoyed it as much as we did. After I was an adult, we both were substitute teachers for the Fulton County school system. It was fun sharing war stories! The one thing I learned from Marie is that laughter and smiles are the things that get us through the tough stuff! She shared much laughter and many smiles with me in both good times and bad. Marie was a very special lady and will be missed. Love, Margie Lambeth Vollenweider
