“ So sorry for her loss . I remember as a little girl playing with her when they would come to the house we had lots of fun. Over the years lost touch didnt know where she was butt a couple of years ago I found her in a facility she remembered who I was and we talked and we cried I was so blessed to be able to see her then. Shes in heaven now with her mom and dad and my mom and her brothers. So she will be missed may she rest in peace.
