“ We will miss Sammy---his word was his bond. He lived by the "Golden Rule" everyday.Always had time to do for others. I often wondered if God gave him afew extra hours. His reward: "eternity in Heaven." We need more Sammy's. Madeline and family, my thoughts and prayers are with you. Memories are forever.

“ Mary Ellen has kept me aware of Sammy's illness. Please accept my sincerest sympathy.

My dad absolutely was crazy about Sammy. He spoke of him as being such a good man. I certainly agree. He was kind enough to plow up dad's garden for him when daddy was too sick to do it. He didnt have to be asked...he just did it. He helped another time when my mom was had cut herself and Daddy and I were at church on a Wednesday night. Mom saw Sammy's # by the phone as he and dad talked off and on. I still can see that big strappin' man in his overalls coming in that church to tell daddy what had happened. He had called 911 for "Miss Vivian" and they were there when we rushed home. He even welded a new bracket on my lawn mower to keep it from breaking loose when I was apparently running over ground too rough? :) You know a good man by his deeds. He will be sorely missed by his family and his community.
