Kenny and me have so many great memories of Leroy. One of so many. The woman less beauty pageant at Hopewell. That green dress he wore. A very fun night and held for a great cause. Will never forget his big smile that he had.

“ One of my favorite memories of Leroy was at the men's retreat at Rock Eagle where I got to spend time with him and Mr, Joe Brown two of the best people God ever put on this earth.

“ What a wonderful friend of 53 years..My heart is full at this time, as I reflect on my first Boss in the trucking industry and one of my great mentors. I cannot even count how many lunches we had together and all the laughs we shared. If you knew Leroy, then your life was truly blessed by his beautiful spirit.

My thoughts and prayers are with Bonny and the entire family.
