“ My first memory of Mark is from 25 years ago when we first moved to Newnan. We would run in to each other at Kroger or Walmart and he would always invite me to church and to his small group. I've never forgotten it and strive to always invite people that way also! He was a sweet man with a sweet family that mean a lot to me! He will be missed here, but oh how great he is doing in Heaven! Love you all. xo

“ Mark was a true gem of a guy. A real Mensch. Always upbeat and cheerful no matter what. He always remembered the day I and my very young grandson just walked out of the woods behind his house and surprised him totally. Our houses are less than 200 yards apart in different neighborhoods. Very funny. Queenn Elizabeth II said it best: "Grief is the price we pay for love." Mark was and is much loved. Lynn and Nancy Bradley
