“ One of my favorite things about my dad was how much he loved kids. I saw that in Marky too. So it was no surprise to me when he donned the Flaming Idiot suit, and accepted the torch that was passed to him. He may not have loved as long as Ed Logan, but as a Logan I know he lived a very full life.

I send my love to my brother, Mark, in this dark hour, and to Tabitha, Carly, and Kaci. Please know that if this is the worse thing that ever happens, you're going to have a pretty good life.

Mark was part of our huge McFarlin family! We would see all the little ones at reunions we often hold.. His Grandfather, George, is my husband Wayne's brother and I have never seen a more proud and loving Pa Paw. Mark looks lots like George and he would tag along behind him while he worked. George, Eunice and Judy spent much time with all their family and taught them great work ethics and above all the love for God. I know he has been met with welcoming arms and love in heaven and will meet us as well when our time comes. God bless and keep you Mark and your precious family as well. I pray God gives his parent and family comfort in the days ahead! Blessings to you!
