

Marla Anne Avidano

November 2, 1967 - July 9, 2012

Marla Anne Avidano, 44, of Truckee, California, passed away July 9, 2012. She leaves behind her beloved parents, Alfred and Jannette Avidano of Orlando, Florida; her brother, Michael Avidano and his wife, Karen, of Fayetteville; her brother, Marc Avidano and his wife, Katherine, of Peachtree City; and her adored niece and nephews, Lauren Avidano, Michael Avidano, Jr., Ryan Avidano, Collin Avidano, Mason Avidano and Graham Avidano.

Marla, or Marly as many knew her, loved life and it was apparent to anyone who was fortunate enough to cross her path. She was born in Somerville, New Jersey in 1967. She graduated from high school in Bridgewater, New Jersey and thereafter attended Clemson University where she earned her degree as a registered nurse. She practiced nursing for many years with a compassion and warmth that radiated even the coldest heart. Most importantly, she loved her family and friends. Marla was genuine in being herself and made those around her feel comfortable to be themselves. She was a person who loved the outdoors and enjoyed skiing, motorcycling, hiking and kayaking in her spare time. Marla was also the most loving and supportive companion and friend one could imagine. She found the best of life in every day and shared it with all others around her. Her untimely death leaves a void that no words can ever fill. Her contagious personality, her loving smile and her kindness towards others will never be replaced. The loss we feel here is only Heaven's gain.

A visitation for family and friends will be held from 5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m., along with a prayer service at 7:00 p.m., on Friday, July 20, 2012, at Parrott Funeral Home & Crematory in Fairburn, Georgia.
