

Marsha Anderson Fiveash

May 9, 1953 - October 21, 2023

Jimmy Buffet once said, “It’s important to have as much fun as possible while we’re here.” Like her favorite singer, Marsha Elizabeth Anderson Fiveash, had a whole lotta fun.

Like Buffet, Marsha understood the salt life. She was born in Reidsville, Georgia delivered by her own grandmother, a nurse. From the start her mother says Marsha was deeply “independent.” She was raised in the salty air of Savannah, and that would forever be home.

She made her way, as an educator, sharing her vast love of reading with children. The deepest love of her life – her two daughters. Marsha fiercely loved her “girls,” Bailey and Kelsey. She also loved their husbands and their friends who deeply love her, Marsha just understood kids. And over the past 5 years, her heart for kids exploded, as she proudly became “EE” to little Mac and Kason.

Marsha was a problem solver. Whether a complicated craft or a plumbing issue, she figured things out, “independent” as her Mom said. Her fighting spirit took her to the end, and so did her selflessness. In her weakened state, she proved her strength. She could barely speak but made it loud and clear to her family that she will forever love them. She showed, and gifted, love freely. From a deeply thoughtful handcrafted ornament to an act of service, Marsha Fiveash was a true friend.

Marsha leaves behind a trail of love through her beloved family: mother Betty, brother Robert, sister-in-law Brenda, nephew Matthew, niece Grace (Emmett), daughters Bailey and Kelsey, son-in-law's Steven and Kenneth, grandsons Mac, Kason and step-grandson Kolby. Marsha is preceded by her dad Robert, grandparents: Otis and Nora Tapley and Elouise and Harley Anderson. Marsha will be remembered for her collection of pink flamingos, her year-round devotion to flip-flops, her deep wit and her wide love. Marsha Elizabeth Anderson Fiveash had as "much FUN as possible."

“ I was so saddened to hear of Marsha's passing. She was such a joy to be around and always made you laugh. She was such a talented crafter and never met a wood pallet she didn't like. Take your rest, Marsha...you are at now at peace.

AN

“ I have so many good memories of my dear friend Marsha. She was a previous co-worker who became a friend, and eventually part of my family. Getting to know her over the years and learning of our many life experience commonalities, she was able to be a sounding board when I needed it, a source of inspiration, and a great source of support. We shared a love of books, immense joy and love for our children, good music, margaritas, football rivalry... Roll Tide!, and even celebrity crushes. As she was very crafty, she was always giving of her talents. Every time I look at one of the signs she made for me it takes me back to a memory, a conversation, a laugh. She was very handy and I know I took advantage of that when a certain printer I had would only respond to her, until eventually all she had to do was look at it and it would fix itself literally. Another joyous laugh at my expense.
Marsha, I hope you are laughing now with a fruity drink in your hand and a conversation with Jimmy. May you rest in peace dear friend, your battle is done!
