“ Marshall (Shorty) McLemore was one of the nicest men I ever met. He and Jennie were the best parents and raised wonderful children. When we were at First Baptist Cliftondale, we could always count on Shorty for his support for whatever was needed. My prayers are with Jennie and all their wonderful family, especially Eddie, Lorie, and Tim (I was closest to these children). Love to you all.

“ I've been best friends with Donnie McLemore for over 23 years. His family is wonderful and tight knit to a degree rarely seen in this day and age. The times I was over at what I call "The Lynfield" house will provide me with treasured memories forever. Marshall and Jennie were always incredibly welcoming and quickly became a 2nd family to me. We would all talk and laugh, then Jennie would make so much of the best tasting food you've ever had that you would have to be "wheel-barreled" out of that house! Marshall Mac as I called him was a great father and leader of the family.

His time serving our country in the military is another reflection of his strength and personal character. God bless you Marshall Mac...you will be missed.
