John, Janifer, and Julie:

I know there are no words anyone can say that will change the sense of loss and emptiness you must feel. Know that Pat and I continue to pray for each of you and your families. We are praying for your comfort and peace as you come to terms with the reality that death so clearly brings. Martha was a brave individual that struggled long and hard with her medical condition.

As we think of Martha we think of days long ago when she could send as quick a quip back as was sent her way. I can hear her sharing so “politely” with you, John, and the girls, what she was thinking, as we all stood there wondering how to respond. Except Pat, and she was just as quick witted as Martha.

Even though you will miss the clicking and bumping of the power chair never doubt that you were truly a part of each others lives. May the joys of those and so many other loving and positive memories fill your hearts and minds in the days to come. May the memories of better days fill your hearts with joy as share together the love you had for Martha and each other.

Never doubt that Martha will be missed by her friends just as she is missed by you and the family.

Praying God Blessings & Care in the days to come,

Steve & Pat Davis

“ John, Janifer, and Julie,

My heart grieves for your loss and I pray that Christ will comfort and bless you during this time. However, you all know that Martha is livin' it up with Beautie Pearl just about now. We'll all be together again soon, won't we? May we all let thoughts of perfect peace and eternal togetherness light the darkness of the loss of our loved ones.

Fondly,

Diane Mayhue Johnson
