“ My husband and I would like to express our sincere condolences to the family and friends of your beloved Martha. We wanted to share with you comfort from God's Word, found in John 5:28,29. Here we are given the wonderful hope of the resurrection of our dear loved ones. The God of comfort also reassures us that he is near to those broken at heart and to those crushed in spirit he saves. (Psalm 34:18) May you also draw comfort from the many loving memories you all made and shared together, cherish them in your hearts always and her memory will live on in each and every one of you, who knew and loved her. Take care of yourselves and each other, during this very difficult time.

“ I first met Martha and her family when my sister, Marie, married her son Mike. Martha always made me feel welcome.

I still have fond memories of Martha fitting me for my very first pair of high heel shoes at Thompson Boland Lee. Those shoes fit like a glove, were purple, cost a week's salary and I loved them.

Martha was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. It was my honor and pleasure to have known such a gentle soul.
