“ I sent Marty an email this morning with photos of her beloved West Highland terrier brothers being spoiled in their new home with my family. When I didn't hear back right away I found her obituary online. To her family: I met her only once, to pick up her furry friends, and she made quite an impression with her good cheer and grace despite what she faced. God speed Marty, and may all of you who loved her find peace.

“ Im sorry to hear of your loss. God will soon put an end to all human suffering. no longer will death and pain exist anymore. We also have the hope of being able to see our lost loved ones again, right here on earth, under perfect conditions. May these promises bring the family some comfort in the days ahaead.-Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8.

“ I am an employee at Caterpillar where Marty worked. She was such a great woman. So caring and concerned about me always. I can recall several long conversations with her on several different occasions about life, work, kids, and everything in between. She showed a special interest and strong concern in my pregnancies and was always giving me advice. She would talk to me a lot about her grandson and how much she adored him. His picture is on the bulletin board in the nurses station at work and I felt like I knew him more and more each time she talked about him (which was a lot)! I will definitely miss Marty a lot. She reminded me so much of my grandmother who I lost at age 12, and having Marty as a friend gave me a sense of peace and trust inside that I remember having with my grandmother. This world will not be the same without Marty. I truly loved her and her and her family will forever be in my thoughts. ?

“ We would laugh until we cried - with mascara streaming down our faces. I can still see her reaching up to hold those false lashes in place or else they would be swimming down her cheeks. No one was ever more candid or generous. No matter how complicated a person or situation, she saw the truth and had a way of putting everything into perspective: "This too shall pass, and until it does....there's pasta!" ? :)

I never left her house hungry for food - or compliments. She saw the best in me - and others - and she was never shy about telling you how much she loved you.

Tommy - I don't think a mother ever loved a son more. You were her joy. And her family meant so much to her - She spoke of Alma, Wilma, Mary, Bernice, Thelma and Fred....you may not have always lived close by, but you were never far from her heart or her thoughts. She will be with you always.

“ Marty Zarzaca....what a beautiful lady....When I was 13 back in 1969, I had the pleasure of babysitting Marty's son, Tommy.....for a whole week....she gave me enough money to buy a John Romaine purse...(high dollar back then)....She gave me more than I had actually made, because she knew I wanted that purse SO bad.....Marty will be missed and remembered fondly.....I am so sorry for the family of this sweet lady.....We WILL see other again.....
